The witnesses took turns in giving interesting reports of Mms. Tetrazzini's alleged relations with the coachman, but the singer herself did not gratify the wish of the crowds which gathered in the hope of hearing her on the witness stand. The jury was completed when a woman spectator was called to replace the challenged juror and the case went on.

SOCIETY WOMAN DENIES PARENTAGE OF CHILD

New York, Sept. 24.—Mrs. Avice Weed Borda, at present residing in the summer society colony at Narragansett Pier, R. I., through the law firm of Dorman and Dana, brought a novel action in the Supreme Court today in which her husband, Wenceslao J. Borda, a lawyer, living at the Hotel Imperials, is one of the defendants.

Mrs. Borda denies the parentage of a baby boy born on November 1, 1917, at 363 West End avenue, which birth was recorded at the Board of Health as being the child of Wenceslao J. Borda and Avice W. Borda. It is to have the official record set straight and to prevent her husband from teaching the child, now nearly 3 years old that she is the mother of the boy, whose parentage she denies, that Mrs Borda has enlisted the aid of the courts.

The Bordas were married in New York in 1907; from 1908 to 1916 their home was in San Juan, Porto Rico, and since then Mrs. Borda has made her home at Narragansett Pier.

GOV. COX. DEFINES STAND ON LEAGUE

Responds to G. O. P., Newspaper Questions Inspired He Says

DARES HARDING QUIZ

Challenges Papers to Get Direct Answer on Any Subject From Opponent—Reiterates Dry Position

Albuquerque, N. M., Sept. 24.—His position on the League of Nations was defined in further detail by Governor Cox of Ohio, Democratic Presidential candidate, in an address here last night to a large audience at the Armory.

"I favor going in, to put an end to war for all time," said the Governor. "This is my position. I am determined to secure the earliest possible entrance into the League of Nations, with the least possible delay and with the least possible reservations needed to accomplish that result. The platform adopted by the convention at which I was nominated permits reservations which will clarify and reassure our people and is opposed only to reservations which would nullify and destroy."

The Governor's statement was made in response to questions in local Republican newspapers, which, he said, he was informed were inspired by two advance agents of Chairman Hays, of the Republican National Committee. These men, named Headly and Smith the candidate said, were 'Hays' scouts' and endeavoring to embarrass and minimize his Western campaign, traveling a few days ahead on the Governor's itinerary.

To one of the local newspaper's question on prohibition Governor Cox also reiterated his position, stating:

"No liquor organization has ever donated a dollar to any of my campaigns to my knowledge, nor have I ever owned a share of stock in any brewery. I suggest that this question be asked of the reactionary candidate. The Eighteenth Amendment is part of the Constitution. The President takes an oath to uphold the Constitution and the law. I will not violate my oath of office, but will enforce the laws as I have done as the Executive of Ohio, where, for the first time in the history of the State, under my first term, saloons were closed on the Sabbath."

Governor Cox challenged the newspapers to "get a single direct answer on any subject" from Senator Hard and Indians were picturesque adjuncts

Judge Frees Man To Await Willing Journey to Pen

Martinsburg W. Va., Sept. 24.—"So long, Judge. I'll show up when they're ready to take me."

And Dr. Harper Judy, 65 years old, drug addict, walked out of the United States court here today, to all appearances a free man, but really to await the time when he will b sent to serve six months in the Federal prison at Atlanta, Ga., for selling drugs to other addicts.

When the case came up before Judge C. A. Wood today, the judge learned the town jail could accommodate no more lodgers.

The old doctor agreed with the judge that the confinement and treatment at the penitentiary would assist him to throw off the drug habit. In fact, the prisoner was so agreeable that the judge allowed him full liberty until the penitentiary would be ready to receive him.

New York, Sept. 24.—Attention "Dry" Congress, "I have never seen so many drunks in court as I have in the past few days."

This was the declaration of Magistrate McGehan in the West Side Court today. Mike Comker told the magistrate he had bought a quart of whisky for $7 and had been inspired to the extent of beating up a grocery man. The magistrate was lenient and suspended sentence.

POLICE SPREAD TERROR IN IRELAND

Wreak Vengance in Four Towns for Murder of Comrades

THREE SHOT DOWN

Investigation of Reprisals Ordered by British Officials—Panic Prevails—To Guard Leaders

Dublin Sept. 24.—Following the ambushing of a police patrol in Country Clare Wednesday, when four policemen were killed and others wounded, the towns of Miltown, Maloy, Lahinch and Ennistown went through a night of terror.

The campaign of reprisals began simultaneously in the four towns with the burning of houses of Sinn Feiners or houses where suspected Sinn Feiners were employed.

The police, known as the "black and tans" went through the towns with bombs, patrol and rifles, firing premises and shooting indiscriminately. Three men were killed, two in Ennistown and one in Lahinch. Families have fled into the country, and a general panic prevails.

Prohibition by the military authorities of an inquest into the death of County Councilor Lynch, of Limerick, who was killed at the Exchange Hotel, has aroused a storm of indignation and the official statement that he was shot while resisting arrest popularly is rejected. The municipal law agent today served notice on the coroner commanding him to hold an inquest. Notice that the military intended to hold an inquiry, probably tomorrow, subsequently was officially issued. The body lies at the city morgue and cannot be removed.

London, Sept. 24.—Dublin castle is stated to have ordered a military inquiry into the Balbriggan police reprisals, having prohibited the coroner from proceeding with the public inquest on two murdered civilians. The Daily Chronicle, Premier Lloyd George's organ, which has hitherto preserved silence on such occurrences says editorially today:

"The police or military reprisals of this kind are of course in principle utterly indefensible, no matter what the provocation, and the Irish government ought to exert itself to end them One or two of the original outbreaks may have been pardonable in so far as they were the spontaneous and inevitable outcome of the intolerable tension inflicted on the police.

"But to take a lenient view of them would allow them to become systematized, would for any government to do that would be suicidal."

The Sinn Feiners are now organizing special guards to protect their leaders. The contention that the general shooting of police is frowned upon by Sinn Fein is apparently disproved by the finding of papers on the person of William O'Mara, giving detailed instructions for shooting certain of the police. These documents are said to have been signed by the 'commandant of the Republican Army Brigade."

The forty-second day of the hunger strike Lord Mayor MacSwiney, of Cork, was still conscious, but suffering severe pains in his head.

FORD CENSURES WAR GREED IN SMASHING PRICES

"Now Is the Time to Call Halt," Auto Maker Claims

Detroit, Mich., September 21—Re-establishment of pre-war prices on all products of the Ford Motor Company, effective immediately, was announced today by Henry Ford. The price reductions range from approximately 14 per cent on motor trucks to 31 per cent on small automobiles.

In announcing the decision of the company, Mr. Ford, in a formal statement said:

"Now is a time to call a halt on war methods, war prices, war profiteering and war greed. It may be necessary for everybody to stand a little sacrifice, but it will be most profitable after all, because the sooner we get business of the country back to a pre-war condition progress, prosperity and contentment will occupy the attention of the people.

"For the best interests of all, it is time that a real practical effort was made to bring the business of the country and the life of the country down to normal. Inflated prices always retard progress."

The announcement said the price reductions were made despite unfilled orders for 146,063 vehicles.

There will be no reduction in wages at any of the Ford plants, it was announced.

Pure, Rich Blood Will Keep Your Body Vigorous and Healthy

When impurities creep into your blood the first symptoms are usually a loss of appetite, followed by a gradual lessening of energy, the system becomes weaker day by day, until you feel yourself on the verge of a breakdown.

Nearly everybody needs a few bottles of S. S. S., the great vegetable blood remedy, to cleanse out all impurities about twice a year. It is an excellent idea to take this precaution to keep the system in a vigorous condition so as to more easily resist disease to which every one is subject. S. S. S. is without an equal as a general tonic and system builder. It improves the appetite and gives new strength and vitality to both old and young.

It's Been A Blessing Declares Farmers Wife

Spencerport Woman Declares She Was on Verge of Collapse Month Ago, But Today Thanks to Tanlac, She Is Well and Happy

"One month ago I was on the verge of a nervous breakdown, but today I am a perfectly well woman," said Mrs. Jennie Burley, wife of a wealthy farmer living on R. F. D. No. 1, Spencerport, N. Y.

"I had been suffering for two years, and during the last year was so bad off I was unable to do the least thing about the house. My nerves were simply a wreck and kept me upset all the time. My appetite was poor and I became so weak and rundown I was hardly ever able to leave the house. I was simply a nervous wreck and, although I was under treatment all the time, I seemed to be growing gradually worse instead of better.

"I read a great deal about the good Tanlac was doing everywhere, so I sent for a bottle, and right after I started taking it I began to improve. I continued to get better in every way until now I am in perfect health. My nerves are just as quiet and steady as can be and I get sound, restful sleep every night. I have a splendid appetite, and everything I eat agrees with me and is giving me strength and energy. I feel so much stronger that I keep busy most of the time, doing things around the house, and it doesn't tire me out one bit. Tanlac has certainly been a blessing to me and I believe it has given me a new lease on life."

Tanlac is sold in Alexandria by Edgar Warfield, jr., and Gibson's Drug store.

CALOMEL LOSING OUT IN SOUTH

Mr. Dodson, the 'Liver Tone' Man, Responsible for Change for the Better

Every druggist in town has noticed a great falling off in the sale of calomel. They all give the same reason. Dodson's Liver Tone is taking its place.

"Calomel is dangerous and people know it." Dodson's Liver Tone is personally guaranteed by every druggist who sells it. A large bottle doesn't cost very much but if it fails to give easy relief in every case of liver sluggishness and constipation, just ask for your money back.

Dodson's Liver Tone is a pleasant-tasting, purely vegetable remedy, harmless to both children and adults. Take a spoonful at night and wake up feeling fine; no biliousness, sick headache, acid stomach or constipated bowels. It doesn't gripe or cause inconvenomel .Take a dose of calomel today and tomorrow you will feel weak, sick once all the next day like violent calomel and nauseated. Don't lose a day.

SAMOA IN THE NEWS AGAIN

Ignored for the most part by the majority of Americans, our distant island possessions now and then remind us of their existence by getting into the new of the day. Not long since the picturesque tale of the capture of Guam was recalled by the edict of the American Governor against whistling. Ruled by a benevolent despot, the little island is fortunate in these days in having no history. From Tutuila and Manua, the two Samoan Islands administered, like Guam, by the Navy Department, now comes a report breaking a long silence. The benevolent despot has become unpopular, and the natives have been stoning his house. So a court of inquiry under Admiral Hughes will presently be convened there.

Yet Samoa was in every mouth just over twenty years ago. Three Powers, the United States, Great Britain and Germany, had interests in the islands. The Germans, after their customary fashion, began to make trouble. There was civil war among the islanders, in which we were nearly involved. The settlement of 1889 had guaranteed the independence and neutrality of Samoa, and a court to protect foreigners, presided over by an American was instituted. None the less there was another war ten years later, fomented by the Germans, between rival kings. Germany backed one, Great Britain and the United States the other; the villages around Apia, held by the German favorite with German help, were bombarded by American and British ships. Only the terrible typhoon which destroyed the fleets averted what might have been an outbreak of war among the Powers themselves.

It was at this time that the real disposition of Germany toward the United States was revealed. People forget easily; and when the Kaiser was cultivating American friendship and sending his brother over to seal the bond, the antagonism aroused, not only by German action at Samoa, but also by German intrigue during the Spanish War, was largely allayed. The Samonan Islands were divided between Germany and United States in 1899, giving each country an important foothold in the Pacific, which Germany has since lost. It has been supposed that the American governed Samoans were contented with their lot. But some one seems to have failed in tact in dealing with them. Thus Samoa comes into the news again.

FOND HEARTS AND THE CELLAR

An equal division of household wines and liquors is one of the provisions sought in a decree of divorce A goodly store of these at existing prices would naturally be an important part of the domestic assets.

May there not be, by the same token, reconciliations brought about by alcoholic pressure? Emotional appeals "for the sake of the child" are familiar in drama and presumably in life. A well-filled cellar also might have its share in reuniting divided hearts.

Nowadays the fellow who yearns for a kick as yearned the Western miner who drank nitroglycerin and jumped off a roof, drink what the bellboy "guarantees."

After looking over the new ones an actor here and there decides that a used play by William Shakespeare has greater mileage in it if operated by an expert.

A feminist says women are the more industrious because men never try to earn a living washing clothes. The answer used to be that women never sit up all night trying to win a few dollars at draw poker, but that answer is out of date.

Simmer stirring, until cooked and thick like a sauce. Then add a pint of cooked horticultural or lima beans and three cupfuls of cooked spaghetti, both of which have been cooked in salted water. SCALLOPED APPLE AND SWEET POTATO

To make Mrs. Howe's Scalloped Sweet Potato and Apple, boil six medium sized sweet potatoes, peel and cut into quarter-inch slices, and put in layers in a buttered baking dish, alternating with layer of thinly sliced ripe apple, using about four apples. Sprinkle each layer of apples with a little brown sugar and each layer of the potato with a little salt and sugar and liberal dots of butter. To this quantity use about one half cupful of brown sugar, three tablespoonfuls of butter and one and one half teaspoonfuls of salt. Settle the layers rather firmly and have the potato on the top. Sprinkle this layer liberally with sugar and butter, pour over it about one-half cup of boiling water, and bake in a hot oven until the apple is soft and the top candied and brown.

Vacant Italian Villas Rushed By Poor Seeking Winter Homes

Rome, Sept. 24.—There have been sporadic attempts on the part of the ppoorer classes, formented by the Socialists, to occupy uninhabited buildings, palaces and villas, especially in the outskirts of the city.

The most important of these attempts was made against the famous Villa Albani, owned by Prince Torlonia. A mob broke through the side gate of the villa and fought amongst themselves for the occupancy of the best rooms. They carried portions of their poor furniture, which they placed in the beautiful gallery between the statue of a Greek Apollo and a fragment of a Venus and under pictures by famous artists.

The police were soon rushed to the villa and cleared out the invaders. The same occurrence took place at the Villa Cellere, owned by the mother of the late Italian Ambassador at Washington.

MOVIES

RICHMOND—"The Jack-Knife Man"

A really worth while attraction is scheduled at the Richmond today when the new King Vidor photoplay, "The Jack-Knife Man," released through the First National, will be shown.

"The Jack-Knife Man" is a charming little story taken from the novel of Ellis Parker Butler of the same title. In the central character it introduces us to a quaintly lovable old chap whose greatest ambition in life is to assist in making the world pleasanter for his fellow beings. His opportunity comes when a little crippled orphan boy is left in his charge by his dying mother. The settings of this picture are mostly unfamiliar to the majority of people and doubly interesting for that reason. Most of the action transpires in a little hamlet nestling on the banks of the Mississippi River—and on an odd little shanty-boat—the home of Peter, the Jack-Knife Man. The cast has been carefully selected.

A two-reel Fox Sunshine comedy, "The Jazz Bandits" will also be shown.

INGOMAR—"The Sins of St. Anthony."

He was so busy looking at bugs through a microscope that he couldn't see what was going on around him. Why he'd never even heard of jazz and the "simmy." No wonder his girl threw him over on account of lack of pep. Then Anthony came to! Went out on a rampage to all the girly-girly shows, plunged into the gay cabarets, until a certain pretty little dancer came along and—

Sounds interesting, doesn't it? Just a hint of the laughs in "The Sins of St. Anthony," featuring Bryanh Washburn, which will be show at the Ingomar today.

"Yes, it's a spendid house," said the possibe purchaser, "but I'm told its haunted."

"Haunted!" ejaculated the pushful real estate agent, rubbing his hands and grinning. "Why, so it is, but you need have no fear, sir. I attend to that personally, and this particular ghost is really well trained. It never appears until the tenant re[illegible] to pay the rent."

An enthusiastic welcome was given the Democratic candidate here. Led by a band he was paraded through the city while fire whistles and automobile horns clamored. Many visitors from distant points of the State were present.

Colorado will be the Governor's campaign ground tomorrow. Leaving here late last night, he was to spend an hour tomorrow morning at Trinidad, from 7.30 to 8.30; make a rear-platform talk at Watsonburg, scene of mine disorders, at 10.20 A. M., and reach Pueblo at 12.10 P. M. to speak at the auditorium and visit the Colorado State Fair.

The Governor will remain in Denver over night and leave early Saturday morning for Greeley, Col., and Cheyenne, Wyo., with a Laramie speech in prospect prior to the Cheyenne address.

Governor Cox will ignore proposals from the Prohibition party for retirements of Aaron S. Watkins, Presidential candidate of the Prohibition party from the race if the Governor will ing, his Republican opponent.

"He has been definite," the Governor continued, "and he has been consistent on one thing only, his championship of the cause of big business and reaction and his deference and devotion to the Senatorial oligarchy."

Governor Cox reached here after a long detour, caused by the wreck of his special train near Phoenix yesterday, via Deming, N. M., where he gave a brief talk and shook hands with scores of persons. Traveling all day, partly by special and regular trains, the Governor greeted more admirers at Rincon, San Marcial and Belen. Many Mexicans, half-breeds pledge himself to certain measures regarding the Volstead law. Governor Cox made this announcement upon his arrival here last night. It was understood that a similar proposal was made to Senator Harding the Republican nominee.

The Prohibition party's proposal the Governor stated, came in a letter about two weeks ago from Virgil G. Hinshaw, who said he acted officially. The letter was in the nature of a questionnaire regarding action upon the Volstead law and other prohibition questions. Mr. Hinshaw, it was said, expressed "confidence" that Mr. Watkins would retire from the Presidential arena should Governor Cox reply favorably to the questionnaire. No reply has been or will be made.

THRILLING TALE OF LIFE IN LAND OF SNOW AND ICE TOLD IN PICTURE

There have been many stories of fighting men, of love and hate and of villainy. But perhaps none of these has held the multitude of passions and deep-rooted thrill which are offered in James Oliver Curwood's "God's Country and the Woman," which is to be the attraction at the Idle Hour theatre on Saturday October 2, It is a Vitagraph production, in which that man's man and virile actor, William Duncan, is featured.

As is usual in a Curwood story, the scene of the plot is in the wilds of the great Northland. Over frozen trail and vast stretches of ice and snow, the spectator is led through one adventure and thrill to the next. It is a story which will amaze, while it is thrilling, which will startle, while it enthralls.

Mr. Duncan has been given the support of a wholly adequate cast, as that in finish and quality of production it does not falter in the slightest degree.

MAKING WAR ON DISEASE MENACE

American Red Cross Announces Budget of $48,200,000 For Current Year.

NEW DISASTER RELIEF PLAN

Continuance of Heavy Work Abroad Deemed Necessary to Protect United States—$21,000,000 Less Than Last Year.

A program of relief and service toward which appropriations of $48,200,000 have been made has been outlined for the American Red Cross for the fiscal year, July 1, 1920, to July 1, 1921, according to official announcement by national headquarters of the organization at Washington. The figures for 1920-21 are $21,000,000 below those of 1919-20, in which $69,400,000 was spent.

Important among the items of the budget for the present year is the appropriation of $31,500,000 for relief in foreign lands, which includes $11,000,000 in purchased supplies on hand and [illegible] distributed.

Must Protect United States.

This will enable the American Red Cross to continue its humanitarian effort to aid stricken peoples to re-establish themselves, to fight the disease epidemics which threaten many countries and to efface largely the remaining traces of the blight left by the World War. It is regarded as social as well as physical sanitation on a large scale that will have a direct bearing on future conditions in America.

Central Europe, the chief sufferer from the conflict, today is facing another winter of famine, pestilence and ruin. Typhus decreased much during the summer months where last winter it had its greatest stronghold, but physicians who investigated the situation at the behest of the League of Red Cross Societies have given their unqualified opinion that this coming winter will see a recurrence on an unprecedented scale. The Red Cross feels it must continue preventive measures abroad to keep this and other deadly maladies from the United States.

Millions for Work at Home.

When the disease was sweeping Central Europe last winter the American Red Cross, with the aid of the governments of afflicted nations, undertook the fight against it. Hospitals were established wherever possible and food and clothing were distributed to the undernourished populations, who by reason of their undernourishment were easy prey to the epidemics. Where disorganization contributed last year to the great inroads made by the disease, by virtue of its knowledge of the disease and the presence of well established hospital centers, the American Red Cross this year will undertake the work with a new confidence.

Including the total of $11,000,000 in supplies left from the last fiscal year, the $21,500,000 is $21,000,000 less than the expenditures for 1919-20.

Appropriations for domestic activities total $16,700,000.

The largest item of this "home" budget is $7,800,000 for civilian relief work. This includes service and assistance for families of soldiers, sailors and marines, and work incidental to disaster. Of the total appropriation for civilian relief, $5,000,000 is held in reserve for the carrying out of actual disaster relief.

Reduced Overhead Expense.

The Red Cross invariably is the first thought of a community visited by calamity. With this in mind, it was determined by the Executive Committee in preparing the budget of 1919-20 to have a fixed reserve fund from which to draw in these instances.

For assistance to soldiers, sailors and marines in hospitals and in camps this year $1,900,000 has been set aside. Four million two hundred thousand dollars has been appropriated for improvement of health and prevention of disease throughout the United States during the current twelve months. The Red Cross is co-operating fully with the United States Health Service in this work and through its Junior Red Cross is doing much to spread among children the principles of sanitation. An appropriation of $1,000,000 has been made for developing the peace time program of the Red Cross by service to its chapters in all regions.

The appropriation of $48,200,000 is exclusive of the local expenditures of the 3,000 or more chapters.

Administration expenses this year will be $1,800,000. Last year they were $2,300,000.

Tubes, Believed Bombs, Prove Harmless 'Squibs'

Bogota, N. J., Sept. 24.—Two dozen slapicious looking tubes found in a shipment of waste paper to the Federal paper mill here apparently are harmless aerial fireworks, officials of the mill declared tonight.

It is believed by them that the tubes were discarded by a fireworks factory at Perth Amboy, N. J., near where the waste paper in the shipment was gathered.

A small charge of powder was found in the tubes, which were made to cause loud reports when thrown into the air, it was said, and no material damage would be caused by their explosion.

The investigation conducted by the police will be continued tomorrow.

2 BANDITS STEAL $5000 FROM U. S. MAIL TRUCK

South Bend, Ind., Sept. 24.—Two bandits held up a screened United States mail truck here today and escaped in an automobile with mail valued by J. N. Hunter, postmaster, at more than $5000. The robbery occurred early in the morning, but the authorities held back the announcement.

The machine in which the bandits were riding drew alongside the mail truck soon after it left the New York Central Railroad station on its way to the postoffice, according to Clarence Hostter, who was in charge of the mail carrier. He said he was forced from the truck, one of the robbers driving it a mile away before the mail pouches were removed to the other machine.
